

Register Now for Chance to Dance Trainings!

Momentum-Excellence at the Speed of Dance, an in-school dance program that works with over 1000 children in Columbus every week, invites dance instructors and educators from the state of Ohio to one or all of the following workshops presented by experts from around the country!

Autism/Sensory Sensitivities

Bridgeway Academy Secondary School & Therapy Center
2155 Fenton Street, Columbus 43224
Andrew Palermo, Founder of Creatively Able, Los Angeles

Monday, November 13, 2017

10:00-Noon Discussion in a classroom
Noon-12:30 Brown bag lunch
12:45-1:15 Class One in the school gym
1:20-1:50 Class Two in the school gym

Physical Disabilities

Colerain Elementary School
499 E Weisheimer Rd, Columbus, OH 43214
Mary Verdi-Fletcher, President/Founding Artistic Director of the Dancing Wheels Company & School
Sara Lawrence-Sucato, Dancing Wheels Tour Manager and Company Member, Cleveland

Friday, January 12, 2018

Noon-2:00 Discussion and lunch
2:30-3:30 Work with children in the school gym
3:30-4:30 Debrief in the school gym

Visual Disabilities

Ohio State School for the Blind
5220 N High St, Columbus, OH 43214
Dr. Jenny Seham, Director of Dance Education for National Dance Institute (NDI) at the Lighthouse Guild, New York City

Monday, January 22, 2018

10:00-noon Discussion in a classroom
noon-12:30 brown bag lunch
12:45-1:45 Class One in the school gym
1:55-2:55 Class Two in the school gym
3:00-4:00 Debrief in a classroom

These workshops are presented at no cost to participants and in collaboration with VSA Ohio and Ohio Dance. Funding is generously provided by the Ohio Department of Education.

More Details on Chance to Dance at: <http://momentum-excellence.org/2017/11/01/chance-to-dance/>

For more information or to register, email Monica Kridler at monica@momentum-excellence.org